2026 Sponsorship Opportunities

The Australasian College of Health Service Management (ACHSM) and the Royal Australasian College of Medical Administrators (RACMA) are pleased to invite you to their joint one-day health leadership conference, to be held at the Cordis Auckland, New Zealand, on Friday, 13 March 2026.

This one-day conference will bring together leaders and decision-makers from across the health sector to explore current challenges, share insights, and shape the future of health management. We invite you to review the sponsorship opportunities available and join us as a valued partner in supporting this significant gathering of health leadership professionals.

The delegates attending this conference will be the key decision makers for future resource and purchasing decisions in the health sector throughout Australasia. They will include CEOs, senior managers, policy makers, health facility planners and designers, academics, researchers and related professionals. The conference expects to attract 250+ senior health leaders.
